HORIZON AIR SUMMER SERIES ANNOUNCES ALL-SERIES BASEBALL HONORS

In the 9th year of the Horizon Air Summer Baseball Series the Humboldt Crabs overtook the rest of the division to capture their first series title.

In the other two series divisions, the Menlo Park Legends edged the Walnut Creek Crawdads to win the Engelken Division and the Sacramento Legends took the Buzzie Bavasi Division.

Humboldt Crabs outfielder Kyle Moses (CSU Sacramento) was awarded the Player of the Year Award. Moses batted .349 with 17 doubles, 2 HR and 27 RBI.

Humboldt Crabs pitcher Chad Hodges captured the HASS Pitcher of the Year award. The South Dakota State right hander was 7-0 with a 2.46 ERA for the Crabs this season.

Manager of the Year went to the Neptune Beach Pearl's Brant Cummings.

The Top Prospect Award went to Chandler Eden of the Marysville Gold Sox. The 2013 Miami Marlin draft pick opted to stay in school at Oregon State.

The Horizon Air Summer series is a unique eleven-week long competition among elite college summer wood bat baseball clubs from the Western United States. Fulfilling a mission of keen competition, the Horizon Air Summer Series crosses collegiate league boundaries to form a "league of leagues".
