Ducks open regular-season ending homestand

against Beavers: Oregon will wrap up the regular season with a four-game homestand with the Ducks getting another shot at Oregon State in a non-conference game on Tuesday night at PK Park. Oregon has dropped all four games to OSU season with a 12-inning loss two weeks ago in Eugene. OSU also swept a three-game series in Corvallis April 25-27 with a pair of two-run wins in game one and two.

Ducks will host nation's No. 1 ranked team for first time:

Oregon will entertain the nation's top-ranked team (Baseball America poll) for the first time in the school's modern history when Oregon State visits Eugene Tuesday. The Ducks have played the No. 1 team in the country five times before on the road, dropping a pair of games at UC Irvine in 2009 before winning two of three at UCLA in 2010. Oregon has hosted the nation's No. 2 team six times before, including two weeks ago when the Ducks lost a 12-inning game, 4-3, to then No. 2 OSU. Last season Oregon won one of three at PK Park against No. 2 Vanderbilt, and in 2010 the Ducks picked up a win in the second game of a three-game series against Arizona State. Overall since 2009 the Ducks have played 28 games against top five teams. They are 1-3 against No. 3, 1-0 against No. 4 and 2-10 against No. 5 ranked teams.

Final four games of regular season will be televised:

The Pac-12 Networks will broadcast all four of this week's games. Ted Robinson and Kevin Stocker will call Tuesday's Oregon State game, while J.B. Long and J.T. Snow handle the duties for the series against California.

Gold tied career record for wins at Oregon:

Jeff Gold etched his name at the top of the record books at Oregon when the senior right-hander picked up his 23rd career win on Saturday at UCLA. Gold moved into a first-place tie with Alex Keudell (2009-12), the Pac-12 Conference's Pitcher of the Year in 2012. Gold's 10 wins this season ranks him third all-time behind Cole Irvin (12; 2013) and Keudell (2012).

Payne now holds three school career records:

Aaron Payne, who ranks in the top five in eight separate career categories at Oregon, added the career runs mark to his resume at UCLA over the weekend. The Ducks three-year starter at second base passed J.J. Altobelli when he scored his 128th career run on Saturday. Payne also holds the career marks for stolen bases (44) and hit by pitches (68) at Oregon.

It's been a year of milestones for Horton:

Oregon head coach George Horton has added three career milestones to his resume in 2014. The Ducks' skipper has reached three career milestones this year. Horton picked up the third one against Washington State when he won his 700th career game as a Division I head coach. His first milestone of the season came in the first series of the year when he won his 900th career game as a head coach. He opened his career at Cerritos College and compiled 226 wins in six seasons (1985-90) at the California junior college. Horton made the jump to Division I as an assistant at Cal State Fullerton in 1991 before becoming the Titans head coach in 1997. Over the next 11 seasons Horton won 490 games at CSF, including the 2004 national championship, before leaving to restart the program at Oregon. Horton picked up the second milestone April 2 in Spokane with his 200th career win at Oregon.

HEAD COACH GEORGE HORTON

In five seasons at the University of Oregon, George Horton has resurrected a dormant Ducks' program and built it into a national power. Horton has led Oregon to the postseason three times during that stretch, including the last two seasons.

Under Horton, Oregon made its first modern-era NCAA appearance in just its second season of existence playing in the NCAA Regionals in 2010. The Ducks topped that effort in 2012 advancing to their first Super Regional, finishing just one win shy of advancing to the College World Series. Horton and the Ducks followed that effort with a school-record 48 wins in 2013 while advancing to the NCAA Regionals.

During his five years in Eugene, Horton has compiled a 180-125-1 record with three 40-win seasons. He has coached four All-Americans, 25 all-conference players, five collegiate national team players and 24 Major League Baseball draft picks.

Horton and his staff have been masterful recruiters during their tenure. The Ducks received seven consecutive (2008-14) top-25 recruiting class rankings as well as boasting four top-10 classes in the last five years (2010, 2011, 2013 and 2014). Many of those recruits have produced immediately for the Ducks with five (Jake Reed, Tommy Thorpe, Cole Irvin, Garrett Cleavinger and Mitchell Tolman) earning freshman All-American honors in their first season at Oregon.

In 16 seasons as a Division I head coach, Horton has coached 17 players that ascended to the major leagues, 25 All-Americans, two national players of the year, five conference players of the year, seven conference pitchers of the year, 56 first-team all-conference players, 16 players who were chosen for the collegiate national team, four first-round draft picks and 109 MLB Draft picks.

Horton has built the Oregon program emphasizing fundamentals, pitching, solid defense and timely hitting. UO's pitching staff has posted an ERA that ranked in the top 20 in each of the last four seasons, including the 2010 staff which ranked third in the country (3.29). Horton's last three teams have ERAs under 3.00, with the 2013 team finishing 14th in the country at 2.78, while the 2012 team (12th in nation) and the 2011 team (19th) finished with identical 2.99 ERAs. Each of the last four teams have also finished ranked in the top 17 in hits allowed per nine innings, including the 2012 team which ranked second allowing just 7.15 hits per game.

Defensively, Horton's last three teams have ranked in the top 17 in the nation in fielding percentage. The 2013 team topped out at third in the country with a .981 fielding percentage, while the 2012 team finished seventh (.978) and the 2011 team was 17th (.976). Manufacturing runs is also integral to the success of Horton's teams. Playing in a pitcher's park, Oregon has ranked in the top five each of the last four seasons in sacrifice bunts with the 2010 team (78 sacrifice bunts) and the 2013 team (99) leading the nation. The 2012 team (88) ranked second, while the 2011 team (84) was fourth. Horton, who spent 11 seasons at the helm of national power Cal State Fullerton and led the Titans to the 2004 National Championship, is the Ducks' 12th baseball coach in school history and it's first since the program was discontinued following the 1981 season.

Before coming to Oregon, Horton spent 11 seasons as head coach at Cal State Fullerton where he compiled an overall record of 490-212-1 (.698) and oversaw six appearances in the College World Series, including back-to-back berths in 2006 and 2007 as well as 2003 and 2004. He was named National Coach of the Year by Baseball America in 2003, and garnered the ABCA and Collegiate Baseball National awards following his squad's title run in 2004. Horton was also a five-time Big West Conference Coach of the Year, most recently earning the hardware in 2006 on the heels of his third 50-win season at the Division I level.

Horton's Division I head coaching career began when he was promoted to replace Augie Garrido, who left to take over the program at the University of Texas. A 1978 CSF graduate, Horton had returned to the campus in 1991 and over the next six seasons helped lead the Titans to a 264-99 record and three trips to the CWS, where they won the 1995 crown with a 57-9 season.

Horton began his head coaching career at Cerritos College in Norwalk, Calif., where he guided the Falcons to three junior college state championships in six years. He compiled a 226-53 record and won the California titles in 1985, 1987 and 1989. Each of those years he was selected National Junior College Coach of the Year. His best season was 1987 when the Falcons went 46-5. He had a South Coast Conference record of 102-28 (.785) and was a four-time South Coast Conference Coach of the Year (1985, 1987, 1989 and 1990).

In 1994, Horton was inducted into the California Community College Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Fame. He also was inducted into the Downey High School Hall of Fame in May of 2003 and was honored in 2005 with the Orange County Manager of the Year Award, given by the Orange Coast Chapter of the Society for Advancement of Management.

Horton earned his bachelor's degree from Cal State Fullerton in 1978 and a master's from Cal Lutheran in 1980.

Ducks picked second in preseason Pac-12 Coaches Poll: The Oregon Ducks were picked to finish second in the 2014 Pac-12 Preseason Baseball Coaches' Poll. UO received 86 points behind only preseason favorite Oregon State. The Ducks won a school-record 48 games in 2013 before ending their season in the Regionals in Eugene. UO returns six position player starters this season behind a pitching staff that features first-team All-Pac-12 pick Tommy Thorpe, who finished his sophomore season 7-5 with a 2.16 ERA. Overall, Oregon returns nine pitchers off last year's team that finished second in the Pac-12.

Ducks ranked in three of five polls: Oregon heads into this week ranked in three of the five college baseball polls. The Ducks are ranked as high as 15th, by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA) and the USA Today Coaches Poll. UO is 16th in the Collegiate Baseball poll. The Ducks fell out of the Baseball America poll after getting swept by Oregon State four weeks ago, while dropping out of the Perfect Game poll last week.

Ducks 20-16 all-time against ranked teams at PK Park: Oregon is no stranger to hosting ranked teams at PK Park. During the program's five-plus seasons playing in the park, the Ducks have played 36 games against teams ranked in the Baseball America top 25 and compiled a 20-16 record in those games.

Ducks have 18 TV games in 2014: Oregon will make 18 appearances on television during the 2014 season. Eight of the team's 32 games at PK Park will be broadcast by the Pac-12 Networks while five of the Ducks' 10 Pac-12 series will have all three games televised. The Pac-12 Networks will also broadcast all three games against Arizona (May 2-4) in Eugene, the three-game set at defending National Champion UCLA (May 16-17) and the final series of the season against California (May 22-24) at PK Park. Oregon's three-game conference series at Washington (April 4-6) was televised, as will UO's games at Oregon State (April 25-27) with the Pac-12 Networks televising the first two games and ESPNU airing the Sunday series finale. In all, five Civil War games against Oregon State will be televised with the Pac-12 Networks broadcasting non-conference games in Eugene on May 6 and May 20. The Ducks' game at Arizona State on May 11 rounds out the 18-game television schedule.

Irvin and Krook out for season: Oregon's starting rotation has been hit by the injury bug in 2014. SO LHP Cole Irvin will miss the entire 2014 season after undergoing surgery on February 10. Irvin set an Oregon school record with 12 wins during his freshman season while claiming freshman All-American honors. The 6-foot-4 lefty went 12-3 with a 2.48 ERA in 16 starts. He pitched a team-high 116.0 innings and struck out 50 while walking just 22. FR Matt Krook underwent season-ending surgery on April 22 after suffering an injury at Washington on April 5. Krook was 2-1 on the season with a team-best 1.79 ERA and led the Pac-12 in strikeouts with 60 before being sidelined.

Thorpe gets the ball for the Ducks on Fridays: While Cole Irvin and Matt Krook have been shelved, JR LHP Tommy Thorpe continues to be the guy headlining Oregon's rotation. The junior bounced back from a bad outing at Stanford (3.2 IP, 8 H, 5 R, 5 ER) to win three straight starts at Washington (5.2 IP, 8 H, 1 R, 1 ER), against UC Riverside (7.0 IP, 2 H, 1 R, 0 ER) and vs. Washington State (7.0 IP, 2 H, 0

R) before being charged for a loss at Oregon State (6.0 IP, 7 H, 3 R). He has added three straight wins vs. Arizona (7.2 IP, 5 H, 1 R), at Arizona State (5 IP, 4 H, 2 R) and at UCLA (6.2, 4 H, 1 R). The lefty has 10 quality starts in 14 outings in 2014 and has gone at least seven innings in seven of those starts. Thorpe had arguably his best outing of the season with a dominant start against Ohio State where he struck out a career-high 10 and allowed just two hits over seven innings. He may have been even better against Utah allowing just three hits in eight shutout innings in a 1-0 win over Utah. Before the Oregon State loss, he allowed just one unearned run in 14 innings, while striking out 15 and walking just 3 against UCR and WSU. Thorpe served as the team's Friday night starter for the last half of last season, making his first career Friday night start at Cal where he picked up the win after allowing just two runs (one earned) on three hits in 7.1 innings pitched.

Thorpe earns Pac-12 honor: Tommy Thorpe was named the Pac-12 Pitcher of the Week after helping Oregon to a series sweep of Utah. Thorpe, a Vancouver, Wash., native propelled Oregon to a series-opening 1-0 win over the Utes, allowing just three hits in eight innings to match a career-high while striking out five. The junior didn't allow a base runner until the fifth inning and didn't give up an outfield hit until the seventh inning.

Gold settles into weekend rotation, ninth in nation in wins: Oregon went old school when it needed another dependable starter. SR RHP Jeff Gold was impressive in nine straight weekend starts, after serving as a mid-week starter during the season's first three weeks, before getting chased early in a loss to Arizona State. He bounced back with another solid start at UCLA where he tied the school record for career wins. In his 11 weekend starts, Gold has allowed just 25 earned runs on 63 hits in 71.1 innings while striking out 43 and walking just five in wins against Ohio State, USC, Utah, Stanford, UC Riverside, Washington State and UCLA with no decisions at Washington, at Oregon State and against Arizona and a loss at ASU. Gold has wins in 10 of his 14 starts this season, which ties him for the 11th most wins in the nation. The senior also ranks in the top 20 in the country in two other categories. He is eighth in the nation and first in the Pac-12 in walks allowed per nine innings (0.82), while also ranking eighth in the country and first in the Pac-12 in strikeout-to-walk ratio (7.25). Gold ranks among the Pac-12 leaders in batters struck out looking (6th; 25). Gold's win over UCLA was the 23rd of his career, tied for the second most in Oregon history and the 18th most among active Division I players.

Tessar is Sunday starter: After being limited for much of the last two seasons because of injuries, SR RHP Brando Tessar put together three straight impressive starts, the last coming as a member of the weekend rotation, before struggling in a loss to Arizona State and a no-decision at UCLA. In those three starts before the ASU game, Tessar tossed 22.1 straight scoreless innings with the first 14 coming in starts (and wins) at Portland (7 innings) on April 9 and against San Diego (7 innings), the nation's third-best hitting team (.326 batting average), on April 14. After 1.1 innings of scoreless relief two weeks ago at Oregon State, Tessar held Arizona scoreless for seven innings in his first weekend start. The Ducks righty, who served as Oregon's Sunday starter at the beginning of the 2012 season before suffering a muscle strain against Stanford on April 15, allowed 14 hits in the combined 21 innings against Portland, USD and Arizona in the three starts while fanning 18. Arizona State was able to get to Tessar scoring seven runs (four earned) on 10 hits in just 3.2 innings pitched, while UCLA put four runs on the board with the help of three walks and five hits in 2.1 innings. For the season Tessar is 4-1 with a 3.48 ERA in eight starts and four relief appearances.

Reed moves to closer role after two years as starter: After two years and 34 starts as a member of the Oregon starting rotation, JR RHP Jake Reed is coming out of the bullpen for the first time in his career. Reed inherited the closer job from two-time All-American Jimmie Sherfy, who compiled 40 saves over the last two seasons. Reed has been successful over the first 56 games of the season out of the bullpen picking up 13 saves while posting a 3-1 record with a 2.23 ERA. He has allowed 19 hits in 32.1 innings while fanning 30. Reed is second in the Pac-12 in saves, while ranking in a tie for 12th in the country.

Reed named to Stopper of the Year watch list: Jake Reed has been named to the midseason watch list for the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association Stopper of the Year Award, an honor given to the top reliever in NCAA Division I baseball, the NCBWA announced. Reed was 10th in the nation, and led the Pac-12, in saves with 10 while boasting a 2-1 record with a 3.18 ERA when the list was announced. He had struck out 22 hitters in 22.2 innings pitched, while allowing just 14 hits. Reed, a junior, is a converted starter who moved to the bullpen this season after winning 16 games in 34 career starts during his freshman and sophomore seasons. Reed ranks among Oregon's all-time leaders in saves (3rd), innings pitched (4th), wins (7th), strikeouts (9th) and appearances (9th). Finalists for the Stopper of the Year Award will be named on June 4 with the winner being announced during the College World Series.

Gold and Karaviotis named to watch lists: Senior right-handed pitcher Jeff Gold and freshman shortstop Mark Karaviotis have been named to watch lists at their respective positions. Gold is one of 47 pitchers on the National Pitcher of the Year list, while Karaviotis is one of just 35 shortstops named to the Brooks Wallace Award list.

Tolman earns national and Pac-12 weekly honors: Mitchell Tolman was named the national hitter of the week by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association on April 15, a day after being named Pac-12 player of the week for hitting .600 as the Oregon baseball team won five times last week. Tolman, a sophomore from Lake Forest, Calif., was 9-for-15 on the week with six RBI and five runs. He had a hit in all five games — two midweek wins over Portland and a weekend sweep of UC Riverside — and had multiple hits four times. Tolman was named NCBWA hitter of the week for the second time in his career, and the first this season. He was named conference player of the week for the first time, and was the first UO position player so honored this season.

Chase named Collegiate Baseball National Player of the Week: Oregon junior catcher Shaun Chase was named one of the Collegiate Baseball National Players of the Week, as well as the Pac-12 player of the week on May 5, after going 7-of-11 with three home runs and seven RBI in the Ducks' sweep of Arizona at PK Park. Chase, a Phoenix native, hit two home runs in Friday's 6-1 victory, and his grand slam provided the winning margin in Sunday's 5-1 result. Chase had two hits on Saturday, the second of which led off the 10th inning; he was replaced by a pinch runner who came around to score on Austin Grebeck's walk-off single.

Payne adds career runs record to all-time marks in stolen bases and hit by pitches: It's been a record setting career at Oregon for SR 2B Aaron Payne. The three-year starter scored his 128th career run at UCLA on May 17 to break former teammate J.J. Altobelli's (2010-13) school career record. Earlier in the season, Payne broke the career stolen bases record, formerly held by Don Reynolds (1972-75), and continued to add to his total with his 44th career steals at UCLA on May 17. The stolen base career record was the second set by Payne, who became UO's hit by pitch all-time leader during his junior season. Payne has run his HBP total to 68, 36 more than his closest pursuer and has bested his own single season record for HBP with 26 this season. Payne also ranks in the all-time career top 10 in games started (2nd; 184), at bats (2nd, 656), triples (3rd; 10), walks (3rd; 77), hits (4th; 169) and multiple-hit games (6th; 39).

Garlick, Tolman, and Baumgartner among career leaders on offense; while a handful of pitchers rank on career pitching lists: In addition to Aaron Payne, a number of Ducks are already among the all-time leaders in the Oregon career record book. JR DH Kyle Garlick is the school's all-time leader in triples (12), while also ranking in RBI (2nd; 102), multiple-RBI games (2nd; 28), doubles (5th; 29), intentional walks (5th; 3), games started (6th; 147), multiple-hit games (7th; 35), at bats (6th; 537), hits (9th; 141) and walks (7th; 61). In just under two seasons, SO INF Mitchell Tolman already ranks among the career leaders in multiple-RBI games (3rd; 20), hit by pitches (3rd; 24), RBI (7th; 82) and multiple-hit games (9th; 33). JR INF Scott Heineman ranks among the top 10 in hit by pitches (9th; 14), stolen bases (9th; 22) and outfield assists (6th; 3), while SR OF Tyler Baumgartner is among the leaders in doubles (7th; 26), triples (5th; 9), multiple-RBI games (9th; 12) and multiple-hit games (10th; 30). JR OF/1B Steven Packard is second all-time in outfield assists with seven.

On the mound, SR RHP Jeff Gold, SO LHP Cole Irvin, JR RHP Jake Reed, JR LHP Tommy Thorpe and SO LHP Garrett Cleavinger rank among the all-time leaders. Reed is ranked in four categories including saves (2nd; 13), pickoffs (3rd; 8), starts (3rd; 34), innings pitched (4th; 246.1), wins (6th; 17), games finished (4th; 25), strikeouts (8th; 162), appearances (6th; 61) and walks (10th; 87). Thorpe is among the leaders in runners picked off (4th, 6), appearances (5th; 65), starts (5th, 31), strikeouts (4th, 221), innings pitched (5th; 236.0) and wins (5th; 18). Irvin is ranked in two categories, runners picked off (5th; 5) and starts (8th; 16), while Gold is in the top 10 in wins (1st; 23), career starts (4th; 33), innings pitched (7th; 216.1) and appearances (10th; 52). Cleavinger ranks in the top 10 in games finished (8th; 15), saves (7th; 4) and appearances (4th; 69). SO LHP Porter Clayton (9th; 2) and SR RHP Darrell Hunter (9th; 2) also rank in the career saves top 10, while SR RHP Brando Tessar is among the leaders in starts (7th; 20).

Oregon team features six college graduates: It's not often a college baseball team can send three graduates to the mound while playing three more in the field, but that is the case at Oregon. Seniors Jeff Gold and Darrell Hunter both graduated in 2013 but returned to school to exhaust their eligibility. Hunter, who was granted a sixth season by the NCAA last September, has a degree in sociology and is working on a Master's Degree in education. Gold graduated in four years with a degree in general social sciences and is working on a music technology minor. Four Ducks--Tyler Baumgartner, Craig Meredith, Aaron Payne, and Brando Tessar--earned their degrees at the end of the winter term in March.

Four Ducks named to Baseball America top prospects lists: Four Oregon Ducks have been named to Baseball America's top 50 prospects list by class. JR INF/OF Scott Heineman, SO LHP Cole Irvin, FR LHP Matt Krook and FR OF Austin Grebeck each have been named to the respective class lists. Krook (San Mateo, Calif./St. Ignatius HS) is the highest ranked of the four claiming the No. 7 spot on the freshman list. Irvin (Yorba Linda, Calif./Servite HS) ranks 17th on the sophomore class list, while Scott Heineman (Pacific Palisades, Calif./ Crespi Carmelite HS) is 26th on the junior list and Austin Grebeck (Laguna Hills, Calif./Mater Dei HS) is 46th on the freshman list.

Heineman, who will miss the remainder of the season after undergoing surgery, batted .278 with four home runs and 38 RBI while playing the outfield as a sophomore. Heineman was ranked as the 19th best prospect in the prestigious Cape Cod League after last summer where he batted .304 in 38 games leading the Brewster Whitecaps to a 14-29-1 record. He led the Whitecaps in at bats (148), hits (45), doubles (8), triples (3) and stolen bases (24). In the season finale for Brewster on August 4, Heineman played all nine positions in a 5-1 loss to Harwich. He started at catcher, moved to first base, then second base, shortstop, third base, left field, center field, right field and finally pitcher (0.1 IP, 1 K, 1 H, 0 R). Heineman, who was named a starter in the Cape Cod League All-Star Game, led the league in stolen bases and triples, while finishing 11th in runs, 16th in doubles and 18th in batting average.

Irvin, who underwent surgery on Feb. 10 and will miss the 2014 season, set an Oregon record as a freshman finishing with 12 wins while earning honorable mention all-conference recognition. He finished with a 12-3 record and a 2.48 ERA with four complete games. The left-hander finished second in program history in innings pitched (116.0) while also ranking in a tie for third all-time in starts (16). He was 7-3 with a 2.88 ERA in Pac-12 games with two complete games. Irvin was named the Pac-12 Pitcher of the Week twice as well as the National Collegiate Baseball Writers of America (NCBWA) National Player of the Week once. He earned a spot on the Eugene Regional All-Tournament Team after throwing a complete game where he allowed just one run on six hits while striking out nine.

Krook was the 35th overall pick in the 2013 MLB Draft but chose to come to Oregon instead of starting his professional career. The lefty was named first-team All-America and first-team all-region by Perfect Game after finishing his senior season with a 1.65 ERA with 85 strikeouts in 59.1 innings pitched.

Grebeck was a first-team all-league and second-team all-state pick while being named to the Orange County Register All-County Team. He batted .407 (37-for-91) with a home run and 11 RBI during his senior season.

Oregon puts 20 runs on the board in game vs. Ohio State, most runs since bringing baseball back: The Ducks stormed back from a disappointing loss to Ohio State on March 8 with one of their most impressive offensive showings since the program was restarted. UO scored 20 runs marking the most runs scored by a Ducks' team since they beat Sacramento State 21-1 on March 19, 1979. The 20 runs bested the modern-era high of 19 runs scored in a 19-10 win at Gonzaga on April 21, 2010. Before the 20 runs scored on Sunday, Oregon's best game at PK Park came in a 17-7 win over East Tennessee State on May 16, 2010.

What are the odds? 1 in 43!: Oregon has played 43 three or four-games series at PK Park since it was built and during that time the Ducks had never homered in every game of a home series...until they hosted Arizona. The Ducks homered in all three games of the series against the Wildcats with two bombs on Friday, a single home run on Saturday and a pair of long balls on Sunday. Catcher Shaun Chase hit a pair of homers in Friday's 6-1 win, before Steven Packard hit a two-run shot in the seventh inning to tie Saturday game. Mitchell Tolman hit a solo home run on Sunday before Chase went yard again with a grand slam in the eighth.
