Auburn vs. Oregon State

Auburn is facing Oregon State for the first time in school history

Bruce Pearl vs. Oregon State

Bruce Pearl is also facing Oregon State for the first time as a head coach.

Tournament experience

None of the players on Auburn's roster have ever appeared in the NCAA Tournament and only one (Antoine Mason) has played in a post-season tournament (2013 NIT) other than a conference tournament.

Oregon State returns seven letterwinners, including one starter, off of last season's CBI team, which went 16-16 and finished 10th in the Pac-12 last season.

Auburn vs. the Pac-12

Auburn is 3-6 (.333) all-time against current members of the Pac-12. Auburn has faced seven different members of the Pac-12, defeating Arizona, Oregon and Utah and falling to Colorado (twice), Southern Cal (twice), Stanford and Washington.

Auburn last faced a Pac-12 team last week when it traveled to Colorado.

After the buzzer

Auburn will charter a flight home following Wednesday's game, arriving back in Auburn early Thanksgiving morning. Auburn will not play again until Dec. 3, when it travels to Lubbock, Texas, to face Texas Tech in the SEC/BIG XII Challenge. The game will air live on the SEC Network at 8 p.m. CT.

#CimCity

Junior Cinmeon Bowers posted an 18-point, 17-rebound double-double in his Auburn debut. The 17 rebounds were an Auburn Arena record and were the most by an Auburn player since Korvotney Barber pulled down 18 boards in 2009.

Bowers' double-double was the first in a season-opener by an Auburn player since Kenny Gabriel went for 18 points and 13 rebounds in the inaugural game at Auburn Arena in 2010.

The last player to record a double-double in his Auburn debut was David Hamilton, who scored 11 points and pulled down a game-high 10 rebounds in a 114-60 win over Southeast Louisiana to open the 1998-99 season.

Bowers has followed that up with three more double-doubles, giving him four straight, which is the most by an Auburn player since Jeff Moore recorded five straight to close out the 1987-88 season.

Jeff Moore's 5-Straight Double-Doubles

3/2/88 26 pts, 11 reb vs. Ole Miss
3/5/88 20 pts, 11 reb at LSU
3/11/88 22 pts, 11 reb vs. Georgia (SEC)
3/17/88 13 pts, 13 reb vs. Bradley (NCAA)
3/19/88 22 pts, 11 reb vs. Oklahoma (NCAA)

#CimCity Part 2

Cinmeon Bowers leads the SEC in rebounding (14.3), offensive rebounds (5.8) and defensive rebounds (8.4). He is also tied for fifth in the league in scoring at 16.4 points per game and is 10th in the league in field goal percentage (.472).

Mason 47 away from 2,000 career points

Graduate student transfer Antoine Mason needs just 47 more points to become the 521st NCAA Division I player to score 2,000 points in a career. A four-year student-athlete at Niagara, he came to Auburn having scored 1,934 career points.

A total of 520 players in Division I history have scored at least 2,000 points over their careers. The 520 come from 243 different colleges.

In Auburn history Chuck Person (2,311 points from 1982-86), Mike Mitchell (2,123 points from 1974-78) and Wesley Person (2,066 points from 1990-94) have scored over 2,000 career points.

Harrell 20 point games

Senior KT Harrell has scored 20-or-more points in three out of four games this season and has now topped the 20-point mark 15 times in 34 career games at Auburn.

Harrell is tied for fifth in the SEC in scoring (16.5 ppg).

Hitting the century mark

Auburn's 105-point output against Louisiana marked the first time Auburn has scored 100 points in a game since a 105-56 win over Grambling State on Nov. 29, 2003, a span of 340 games.

The 100-point game marked the 53rd time in Auburn history that it has topped the 100-point mark while it was the 99th time a team led by Bruce Pearl scored 100 points.

20-point scorers

Auburn had three different players top the 20-point mark in its 105-80 win over Louisiana in KT Harrell (24 points), Tahj Shamsid-Deen (21) and Cinmeon Bowers (20). The last time Auburn had three players score at least 20 points

2014-15 AUBURN BASKETBALL GAME NOTES

8 NCAA TOURNAMENTS:

surgery. The Brampton, Ontario, Canada, native re-injured the leg during the second half of Auburn's exhibition win over West Alabama.

No timetable has been set for Atewe's return.

Playing with a short deck - Part I

Auburn's roster features just five returning letter winners in sophomore center Matthew Atewe, senior guard Malcolm Canada, senior guard KT Harrell, junior forward Jordon Granger and sophomore guard Tahj Shamsid-Deen.

With the injury to Atewe, that reduces the number of scholarship returnees to just four for Bruce Pearl's first team Auburn team.

Across the country, there are just 17 teams that return four-or-fewer letter winners. In the Power Five conferences, there are just five teams: Auburn (4), Miami (2), Missouri (4), Oregon (3) and Tennessee (4).

Playing with a short deck - Part II

Auburn's scholarship players have an average height of 6-feet, 4-inches and there are no players taller than 6-foot, 8-inches on the roster.

With the loss of Matthew Atewe, the average height drops to 6-foot-3 and leaves the team with just two players at 6-foot-8.

Top Scorers

Auburn will have two of the nation's top scorers from a year ago on the floor this season. Graduate student Antoine Mason transferred from Niagara for his final season after averaging 25.6 points per game last year, which was second nationally only to Doug McDermott of Creighton (26.9 ppg).

Additionally, senior KT Harrell is the SEC's top returning scorer after finishing sixth in the league last season at 18.3 points per game, which was 80th nationally.

All-conference players

During his 19-year head coaching career, Bruce Pearl has had at least one player selected First Team All-Conference in every season.

Breaking the century mark

Bruce Pearl's teams have scored over 100 points 99 times during his 20-year head coaching career. As a program Auburn has had 53 100-point games in its history.

Pearl loves playing at home

Bruce Pearl has led his teams to an incredible 270-31 (.900) home record during his 20-year coaching career. Auburn is 44-30 (.594) at home in Auburn Arena, 2-0 (1.000) under Pearl.

Spreading out the minutes

During his six-year tenure as head coach of Tennessee, Bruce Pearl had a total of 28 players average over 10 minutes per game on 55 occasions. During the Volunteers' run to the Elite Eight in 2009-10, 12 players averaged 10-plus minutes per game.

In four games this season, Auburn has nine players averaging double-figures in minutes, three of which have averaged over 30 minutes and six that have averaged over 20 minutes.

46 percent of scoring returns

Despite having lost three of its starters from last year's team, Auburn returns 46 percent of its scoring from the 2013-14 squad with senior guard KT Harrell (18.3 ppg) and sophomore guard Tahj Shamsid-Deen (9.5 ppg) accounting for 39 percent of the team's scoring last year.

Bruce Pearl Meet & Greets

Bruce Pearl will host a Meet & Greet with Auburn fans in Las Vegas, Nev., after hosting over 60 people at a Meet & Greet in Boulder, Colo., last week, sponsored by the Rocky Mountain Auburn Club.

The Auburn Alumni Association will host the Meet & Greet with Pearl on Tuesday, Nov. 25 in Las Vegas from 6-7 p.m. PT at the Brio Tuscan Grill.

Preseason Predictions

Bruce Pearl 'Fore the Children' raises over $150,000

Bruce Pearl's Fore the Children Golf Classic was a huge success, raising over $150,000 for Children's Harbor through a weekend full of events on October 26 and 27.

"Our monetary goal was lofty," Pearl said. "We thought we would be able to write a check for $100,000 to Children's Harbor. I'm pretty pleased to say that we will be writing a check closer to the area of $150,000 after everything gets paid for."

"I really appreciate everything coach has done for us and all the support he has lent to us," Myrle Grate, COO of Children's Harbor said. "Children's Harbor raises every dime we have every year. We don't get any government subsidies or funding, we raise everything through private individuals so this fundraiser means that 5,000 kids can come to camp next summer and 35,000 people can come through our family center next year and receive support services."

The event, which was presented by Russell Lands and Alabama Power, began with a dinner auction at the Pearl's house and concluded with a golf tournament at Willow Point Golf and Country Club.

"Historically, educational things, kids and cancer have been the areas that my wife (Brandy) and I focused on," Pearl said. "At Children's Harbor, over 5,000 young people every summer get an opportunity to enjoy the beauty of camping at Lake Martin. They don't have to pay anything because of the efforts of the leadership."

Children's Harbor's mission is to help children with serious illness and their families. This is done at both the Lake Martin campus and the Birmingham Family Center. The 66-acre lake campus provides no cost camping facilities to over 23 different non-profit organizations. The Family Center at the Benjamin Russell Hospital for Children offers seriously ill children and their families free counseling for everyone involved, education services and tutoring, scheduled activities, an exercise room, a library, salon, laundry facilities and much more.

2014-15 AUBURN BASKETBALL GAME NOTES

Bruce Pearl is a proven winner. In 19 seasons as a head coach he has never had a losing season. He has also guided his team to the NCAA Tournament 17 times. And when he's not winning basketball games, he's winning the hearts of a fan base badly wanting a winner.

In the month following Auburn's hiring of Pearl, deposits towards Auburn general public season tickets were up 258 percent over the previous season from the same point while donations towards scholarship ticket were up 560 percent in that same time period. All this for a man that has a .700 (231-99) winning percentage at the Division I level and a .761 (462-145) winning percentage overall.

"Tremendous hire by Jay Jacobs," ESPN Basketball Insider Jeff Goodman said the day Pearl was hired. "He is a proven winner – and it's just a matter of time before he makes Auburn relevant nationally in basketball. He is one of those rare guys that can both coach and recruit – and get his guys to play hard on a consistent basis. This is the ultimate home run hire."

Heading into the 2014-15 season, Pearl is one of just 10 current head coaches at a Division I school with a minimum of 10 years of experience and no losing seasons. The top three on that list – Jim Boheim of Syracuse (38 years), Roy Williams of North Carolina (26) and Tom Izzo of Michigan State (19) – have all led their teams to National Championships, something else Pearl did as he led Southern Indiana to the NCAA Division II Championship game in back-to-back seasons, winning it all in 1995.

Pearl's impact on the Auburn community has been apparent since the day he was hired on March 18, 2014. A crowd in excess of 3,000 fans, half of which were students, showed up to Pearl's press conference in Auburn Arena, for which Pearl bought the students pizza. Ever since he has been visible throughout the Auburn campus, showing up on the concourse in a dunk tank as part of a fraternity fund-raiser and returning two weeks later alongside football coach Gus Malzahn, women's basketball coach Terri Williams-Flournoy, baseball coach Sunny Golloway and university president Dr. Jay Gogue encouraging students to 'Crush Finals.' He also regularly eats meals amongst the students on campus, engaging himself unlike any other coach or staff member on Auburn's campus.

"Bruce Pearl is a great hire for Auburn," ESPN's Jay Bilas said. "He will bring an energy and enthusiasm to the program that will be contagious, and he's a truly outstanding coach. Pearl has the goods, and he can really sell them too."

Pearl's 19 years of coaching experience covers three stops. He began his head coaching career with a nine-year stay at Southern Indiana, taking the program to the tournament each season, going 231-46 (.834) from 1992-2001. From there he made the move to Wisconsin-Milwaukee, taking the Panthers to the NIT once and the NCAA Tournament twice, including a 2005 Sweet 16 appearance. After compiling an 86-38 (.694) record at UW-Milwaukee, Tennessee tabbed him as its leader in 2005 and he responded by taking the program to six straight NCAA Tournament appearances, two Sweet Sixteens (2007, 2008) and the 2010 Elite Eight, which was the most successful six-year run in Volunteers history.

During Pearl's stay at Tennessee, the Volunteers topped the 20-win mark five times and was the SEC's winningest program during his six seasons, winning the 2008 SEC regular season SEC Championship, the 2006, 2008 and 2009 SEC Eastern Division titles and earned the school's first-ever No. 1 national ranking. From 2006-11, Tennessee went 65-31 (.677) in league play, better than every team in the conference during that time period.

Pearl's preferred style of play, a high-scoring, pressure-type scheme, has proven to be very exciting and very successful throughout the years. His teams have led their conference in scoring 16 of the 19 years that he has been a head coach. His Tennessee squads were the SEC's scoring champion in four of his seasons on Rocky Top, averaging 77.4 points per game while allowing 70.5 ppg. At the Division I level, his teams have topped the 100-point mark 14 times, including a high of 124 in 2009 as well as 121 points in the 2007 NCAA Tournament. In his second year as coach at Southern Indiana the team averaged 101.7 ppg. Twice he has coached the league's leading scorer in UW-Milwaukee's Dylan Page in 2004 (20.9 ppg) and Tennessee's Chris Lofton in 2007 (20.8 ppg).

"(Pearl) has taken down a lot of high-flying teams as the coach at Tennessee," ESPN.com's Pat Forde wrote in March 2010. "Playing his Volunteers is hazardous to your ranking."

During Pearl's stay at Tennessee, he attracted outstanding players to Knoxville. Wayne Chism was Pearl's first marquee signee at Tennessee. The Volunteers went 104-38 during Chism's four-year career, and he walked off the court in 2010 as the school's all-time leader in games played and wins. Chism also appeared in more NCAA Tournament games and logged more wins in the "Big Dance" than any Vol in history.

But perhaps more important is the fact that Chism extended a trend that followed Pearl throughout his stay at Tennessee. Every player that played four years for Pearl at Tennessee earned their college degree.

Boasting a .700 winning percentage over 10 Division I seasons, Pearl has done it against some of the toughest schedules in America. Tennessee sought out non-conference matchups with the most prominent teams and players on the collegiate landscape. During his stay at Tennessee the Volunteers defeated Kevin Durant and Texas, Derrick Rose and Memphis, Greg Monroe and Georgetown, Matt Bouldin and Gonzaga, Sherron Collins and Luke Aldrich of Kansas and Ohio State with National Player of the Year Evan Turner. That's in addition to logging SEC wins against future NBA standouts such as Ronnie Brewer, Glen Davis, Joakim Noah, Rajon Rondo and John Wall.

Playing such a difficult schedule led to an average year-end RPI of 17 as well as three top-five seeds in the NCAA Tournament. Twice Tennessee landed in the top 10 in the final national rankings, with a high of No. 5 after logging a school-record 31 wins in 2007-08.

Tennessee's on-court success never came at the expense of academics. Tennessee had 31 SEC Academic Honor Roll selections under Pearl and nine members of the 2006-07 squad earned SEC Academic Honor Roll recognition.

"You can't serve unless you are called upon."

That has been an oft-quoted Pearl mantra throughout his time at Tennessee and has been carried over to his early days at Auburn. An ambassador for the university, Pearl's selfless community service work and generous stewardship made him one of the most influential public figures in the state of Tennessee. He was named "Knoxvillian of the Year" by Knoxville Metro Pulse in 2008 and also received the prestigious "Knoxville Award" in 2010. The UT basketball program also earned the UT Men's Community Outreach Team Award twice in his six seasons.

Pearl realized a lifelong dream in the summer of 2008 when his country called upon him to serve as head coach of Maccabi USA's open men's basketball team at the 18th World Maccabiah Games in Israel. He led the American squad to the gold medal for just the third time in 24 years, toppling favored Israel in the title game.

The Maccabiah gold marked Pearl's 16th championship during his head coaching career. In 19 seasons at the collegiate level, his teams have made a remarkable 17 NCAA Tournament appearances and racked up 26 NCAA Tournament wins. Only three times in 19 years has a Pearl-coached team not led its conference in scoring, and his squads have finished either first or second in their respective leagues an astounding 14 times.

Pearl has garnered six National Coach of the Year awards, and his teams have set school records for wins at three different universities (29 at Southern Indiana in 1995, 26 at UW-Milwaukee in 2005 and 31 at Tennessee in 2008). His teams have also won at least 10 games in league play in nine out of his 10 seasons as a Division I head coach.

His NCAA Tournament resume is equally as impressive – as he is one of only seven active head coaches who has led his teams to 10 NCAA Sweet Sixteen appearances. From 2007-2010, Tennessee stood alongside Kansas, Memphis, Michigan State, UNC and Xavier as the only programs in America to reach the Sweet 16 three times.

While Pearl often exults that "it's all about the players," some of his most successful pupils direct the praise Pearl's way.

"When BP first got (to Tennessee), I was just a shooter," three-time All-America Chris Lofton said. "But by the time I left, he and his staff had made me into a scorer."

Current Indiana Pacers guard C.J. Watson is one of more than a dozen players Pearl and his staff have developed in NBA contributors.

"Coach Pearl gets all the credit for my success because he turned me into the player I've become," Watson said. "He was the one who got me to attack the basket and allowed me to play more aggressive."

During the Pearl era, Tennessee played more than 70 games on national television, and a Volunteer appeared on the cover of Sports Illustrated four times. In addition, Tennessee was featured in an ESPN College GameDay matchup four straight seasons.

"Pearl has done a magnificent job of building confidence and belief in his players – and of selling his program to those closest to it – his own students and fans," Bilas said.

Pearl's coaching career began at his alma mater, Boston College, as a student assistant coach to the legendary Dr. Tom Davis. After 14 seasons seated to the right of Davis, the 32-year-old Pearl embarked on his own head coaching career. But Pearl's first break came during his undergraduate career at BC when Davis offered him a position of student assistant in 1978. In 1981, the Eagles won the Big East Conference championship and reached the Sweet Sixteen of the NCAA Tournament. The following season, BC advanced to the Elite Eight.

When Davis moved on to Stanford in 1982, Pearl joined his staff as an assistant coach and then, at the age of 23, was promoted to associate head coach for the Cardinal. While in Palo Alto, Calif., they ended a streak of 20 consecutive losing seasons with a 19-12 overall record in 1983-84, laying the groundwork for a resurgence in Stanford basketball. During that time, they recruited four players who were drafted by the NBA, including Todd Lichti, who finished his career as Stanford's all-time leading scorer with 2,336 career points.

After four seasons on the West Coast, Pearl followed Davis to Iowa in 1986. Over the course of the next six seasons, the Hawkeyes received five NCAA Tournament berths while compiling a 129-63 overall record. In 1987, the Hawkeyes recorded a 30-5 mark and advanced to the Elite Eight before falling to UNLV. And in 1988, Pearl was recognized as one of the top Division I assistants in the country by Basketball Weekly while helping direct the Hawkeyes to the Sweet Sixteen.

His six seasons in Iowa City helped produce 11 NBA draft picks for the Hawkeyes, including Brad Lohaus, Kevin Gamble, B.J. Armstrong, Roy Marble and Acie Earl.

"From the time I met him he was able to get the most out of me as a player," Lohaus said. "He understood my personality and knew how to motivate me. He believed in me when others did not."

"He still stays in touch, offering his friendship and advice."

These 14 seasons with Davis provided Pearl a foundation of basketball knowledge that enabled him to move on to a head coach position.

"I feel like I had a great mentor in Dr. Tom Davis," Pearl said. "If you're any good at anything, chances are you had somebody pretty good who taught you how to do it. I had the pleasure of being by his side for 14 years. He was a brilliant defensive strategist. He taught me how to press and how to run, but more than anything else, he taught me how to work with young people, how to be patient, how to be disciplined and how to get the most out of them, even more than they ever dreamed they could have."

Pearl's first head coaching opportunity came at Southern Indiana, a Division II school located in Evansville, Ind.

Inheriting a team that had won only 10 games the previous season, Pearl's first squad at USI posted a 22-7 record and advanced to the NCAA Tournament. That first season was a precursor of things to come for the school. Over the next nine seasons, the Screaming Eagles posted a 231-46 (.834) record and won four Great Lakes Valley Conference championships.

They received NCAA Tournament bids in each of Pearl's nine seasons and advanced to the Sweet Sixteen six times. USI experienced unparalleled postseason success under Pearl's guidance. The Screaming Eagles won a national championship in 1995 and finished second in 1994. In nine postseason appearances, USI won 16 NCAA Tournament games.

After winning the national championship in 1995, Pearl was named the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) Division II Coach of the Year. Twice (1993 and 1994) he was named the Great Lakes Valley Conference Coach of the Year, and in 2000, he garnered NABC Great Lakes Region Coach of the Year honors.

Late in the 2000 season, Pearl earned his 200th career win, making him the fastest coach in NCAA history to reach the 200-victory mark at one school. Needing just 240 games, Pearl easily broke the record of 250 that had been held by North Carolina State's Everett Case.

In Pearl's four years as head coach at UW-Milwaukee, the Panthers won a pair of Horizon League regular-season titles (2004 and 2005) and two Horizon League Tournament championships (2003 and 2005). They advanced to Division I post-season play for the first time in school history, making two NCAA Tournament appearances (2003 and 2005) and receiving an NIT bid (2004).

In 2005, Pearl led the Panthers to the most successful season in school history. In addition to winning regular season and conference tournament titles, UWM made its' first-ever appearance in the Sweet Sixteen.

Pearl's 51-13 (.797) record in Horizon League games gave him the best winning percentage of any coach in league history. He became the second-fastest coach to win 300 career games with a 73-56 win over Loyola Jan. 8, 2005.

A native of Boston, Mass., Pearl received his bachelor's degree in business administration from Boston College in 1982, graduating cum laude. Pearl has two daughters, Jacqui and Leah, and two sons, Steven and Michael. He is married to the former Brandy Miller of Sevierville, Tenn.

In its fifth year, Auburn Arena was built at a cost of $86 million and seats 9,121 fans for basketball games, bringing Tiger fans close to the action. Auburn Arena replaced the old Beard-Eaves Memorial Coliseum as home of Tiger basketball for the 2010-11 season.

The furthest seat in Auburn Arena is just 43 feet away from the court. A full two-thirds of the seats in the facility are less than 27 feet in elevation from courtside. Auburn students have their own entrance, lobby and concessions area at the Arena to service 1,500 floor-level seats.

The Arena features a team store, six concession stands, three elevators, 94 HD televisions plus family restrooms and customer service kiosks on all seating levels. For special events, 12,000 square feet of banquet space, including tailgate and super suites, is available.

Arena sellouts

In the four-year history of Auburn Arena, the facility has reached its max capacity of 9,121 fans five times, the last time coming Jan. 19, 2013 against Kentucky.

Auburn was held to a season-low 35 points in a 53-35 loss to Tulsa in the Heavyweight Bracket of the MGM Grand Main Event in Las Vegas.

Junior Cinmeon Bowers had a fourth-straight double-double with 17 points and 15 rebounds but got little help from his teammates, which scored a combined 18 points.

Bowers' fourth straight double-double marks the first time an Auburn player has done that since Jeff Moore closed the 1987-88 season with five straight double-doubles.

Auburn suffered two different 7-minute scoring droughts, scoring its last points of the first half with 7:01 to go and then enduring a similar drought from the 10:30 mark until there was just under 3:30 left in the second half.

The loss dropped Auburn to 2-2 on the season and put it in the Consolation Game against Oregon State.
