THE SERIES

• Saturday's game marks the 118th meeting of the Ducks and Beavers in the Civil War, the longest-running college football rivalry west of the Rocky Mountains.
• The Ducks hold a 61-46-10 advantage in the all-time series and have a 29-9-1 (.756) mark vs. The Beavers since 1975, including wins in six straight.
• UO is 28-18-5 all-time vs. OSU in Corvallis, including three straight wins at Reser Stadium. That .598 winning percentage is better than the Ducks have vs. the Beavs in Eugene (.544).
• Oregon's 61 wins over the Beavers are nine more than against any other opponent (Idaho, 52).

QUICK HITS

• Freshman have scored 219 of Oregon's 504 points, 43.5 percent, this season. True freshman RB Royce Freeman leads the team with 96 points thanks to his 16 rushing touchdowns, while another true freshman, K Aidan Schneider, is fourth with 41 points (26 XP, 15 FG). Redshirt freshman Devon Allen is tied for fifth with 36 points, behind six receiving TDs. True freshman Charles Nelson has 30 points, while redshirt freshmen Kani Benoit and Darren Carrington have each scored six points and Taylor Alie has scored four. Overall, freshman have scored 29 of Oregon's 68 touchdowns, while making five of the team's 10 field goals.

• Marcus Mariota has already thrown the third-most touchdowns (95) in Pac-12 history. The Ducks' junior QB needs five more TD passes to move ahead of Matt Barkley (USC, 2009-12) holds the all-time record with 116 TD passes.

• Mariota has already made his mark in Oregon's record books with one game left in the regular season of his junior campaign. The Ducks' QB already owns the school record in seven different categories. He is the career record holder for total offense, passing yards, completions, TD passes, total TDs, total points accounted for, and consecutive passes without an interception. He is also on pace to set new school records in completion percentage and passing efficiency.

• The Ducks sport the best overall record in college football this decade at 57-7 (89.1%). UO's 79% success rate vs. top 25 opponents (15-4) is also the best in the land.

• Fifty of UO's 57 victories since 2010 (87.7%) have been by 14 or more points.

HEAD COACH MARK HELFRICH

Oregon Head Coach Mark Helfrich knew the comparisons would be inevitable – how do you replace arguably the most successful football coach in school history? His answer was simple – by being Mark Helfrich. That formula proved to be successful in 2013. In guiding the Ducks to a first-year mark of 11-2 and a 30-7 Alamo Bowl triumph over Texas, the number of wins equaled three others for the conference record for success by a first-year head coach as well as surpassed his predecessor Chip Kelly's previous Oregon pinnacle for most wins by a rookie head coach. In addition, Helfrich joined Ducks' alum John Robinson (USC, 1976) as the league's only other coach to win a bowl games in his inaugural season. Only four other squads in school history have ever won as many as 11 football games in a single season (2001, 2010, 2011, 2012) – the former Oregon graduate assistant coach (1997) made it a fifth. Helfrich helped orchestrate the continuation of the program's offensive firepower last season as the Ducks led the league in total offense (2nd in the country) for the fourth year in a row, in scoring offense (4th in the nation) for the seventh straight season, and in rushing (9th nationally) for the eighth time in many years. The transition to head coach has been a relatively smooth one. Six of the assistant coaches who played key roles in the program's trio of conference championships in the past five years remain, as do three of the assistants who have called Eugene home for more than two decades. As a result of the change there really has been little change at all. The 40-year-old Oregon native was appointed the school's 32nd head football coach on Jan. 20, 2013, following a quartet of seasons as the Ducks' offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach during the program's most prolific era in school history. Oregon tallied a 46-7 ledger and four BCS bowl appearances from 2009-12.

HELFRICH'S CAREER START AMONG BEST ALL-TIME IN PAC-12

Mark Helfrich has picked up wins in 21 of his first 24 games as a head coach which matches the best start by a coach in over 64 years. Helfrich is tied with former Ducks' coach Chip Kelly. California's Pappy Waldorf went 22-2 during his first 24 games at the helm of the Golden Bears program starting in 1947 to record the best start in league history.

ANOTHER GAME, ANOTHER TOUCHDOWN

Marcus Mariota continued his streak of passing touchdowns with three in Oregon's 44-10 win over Colorado. The junior has thrown at least one touchdown pass in all 37 games of his career, totaling 95 scores through the air. Mariota, who had 31 touchdown passes in 2013 and has 32 this season, has thrown for two or more TDs in a game 29 times with a career-high six touchdown passes at California as a freshman. He also has thrown four or more touchdowns in a game eight times. Mariota's 37-game touchdown pass streak is the second-longest in the nation behind Marshall's Rakeem Cato (who owns the NCAA record). Overall, Oregon has thrown a touchdown pass in 64 straight games setting a new Pac-12 Conference record (Stanford held the old record of 36 from 1977-81). The NCAA record of 69 consecutive games with a TD pass is held by Texas Tech (Sept. 23, 2006-Oct. 22, 2011).

SUPER MARIOTA

Marcus Mariota is at it again. The Ducks third-year starter is putting together a junior season that is as good as any quarterback in the country. Mariota currently leads the nation in quarterback rating at 185.19. During his three-year career, Mariota has a 171.5 efficiency rating which is just behind Sam Bradford's (Oklahoma; 2007-09) all-time NCAA record of 175.6. Mariota heads into Oregon's game at Oregon State also leading the country in points responsible for with 252 total points (22.9 ppg), while also ranking fifth in total offense with 336.4 yards per game. Oregon's signal caller already owns Oregon's school records for touchdown passes, total offense and passing yards. Mariota is on pace to also shatter both the school's career records for completion percentage and passing efficiency. He also owns the Pac-12's top two streaks of passes without an interception setting a school-record 353 pass streak that ran from the end of his freshman season to his first pass at Arizona in November 2013. Mariota's latest streak of 253 pass attempts without an interception was snapped at California.

Mariota entered this season with arguably the best back-to-back seasons by a quarterback in Oregon history. In 2013, the redshirt junior from Honolulu more than met the challenge of following up a rookie campaign that saw him set the Pac-12 freshman record for touchdown passes (32) and lead the conference in passing efficiency (seventh nationally) en route to Pac-12 Offensive Freshman of the Year and all-Pac-12 first team QB honors. His encore as a sophomore included 3,665 yards passing and 715 rushing with 40 total touchdowns (31 pass, 9 rush) and just four interceptions. Mariota ranked seventh nationally in pass efficiency rating (167.66), ninth in points responsible for per game (18.8) and total offense (336.9 ypg), and 11th in yards per carry (7.45). A Heisman Trophy candidate for most of the season, Mariota was a semifinalist for the Maxwell Award (most outstanding player), the Davey O'Brien Award (national quarterback award) and Walter Camp Award (most outstanding player). He was also on the watch list for the Manning Award (top quarterback honor, including bowl game).

9,000, 11,000 AND NOW 2,000

Marcus Mariota added another career milestone in the Colorado game when he surpassed the 2,000 career rushing mark (2,064 career yards). That came a game after the junior QB became the first player in Oregon history to go over the 9,000 passing yards plateau as well as the 11,000 yards of total offense mark. Mariota ran his career passing total to 9,445 passing yards while moving his total offense school record to 11,509 yards in the Colorado game.

MARIOTA JOINS EXCLUSIVE CLUB

When Marcus Mariota reached the 2,000-yard rushing mark against Colorado he joined an elite club of quarterbacks who have rushed for 2,000 yards in their career while also passing for more than 9,000 yards. Mariota became just the sixth player all-time to reach both marks joining Dan LeFevour, Robert Griffin III, Colin Kaepernick, Tim Tebow, and Cody Fajardo. Mariota and LeFevour are the only players to do it in three seasons.

9,000-Yards Passing/2,000 Yards-Rushing

Name (School)	Rushing	Passing
Dan LeFevour (Central Mich.)	2,948	12,905
Robert Griffin III (Baylor)	2,251	10,366
Colin Kaepernick (Nevada)	4,112	10,098
Cody Fajardo (Nevada)	3,290	9,489
Marcus Mariota (Oregon)	2,064	9,445
Tim Tebow (Florida)	2,947	9,285

MARIOTA ADDS ANOTHER CAREER RECORD

Marcus Mariota put his name on top of another career statistical category at Oregon in the Ducks' win over Stanford on November 1 when he passed Danny O'Neil (1991-94) for the most completions in school history. Mariota added 24 more complete passes against Colorado to push his school record to 685, 49 more than O'Neil. Mariota's completion record came a week after he set the passing yardage record breaking Bill Musgrave's (8,343, 1987-90) old record. Mariota now has 9,445 passing yards, 1,102 more than Musgrave. Earlier this season, the junior passed Darron Thomas (2008-11) for first all-time in TD passes when he threw three against Michigan State. He ran his career total to 95 -- 29 more than Thomas -- with three vs. Colorado. Mariota added another school record early in the game against the Spartans, passing Musgrave for the all-time lead in career total offense, and now has a school-record 11,509 yards - 3,369 more than Musgrave.

Mariota's Oregon Career Records

Category	Old Record	Record
Total Offense	8,140	11,509
Passing	8,343	9,445
Completions	636	685
Touchdown Passes	66	95
Total Touchdowns	77	118
Total Points Accounted For	472	720
Consecutive Passes w/out INT	178	353

30-30-30

A factor in Marcus Mariota's ability to pile up so many school records has been his poise and consistency from the moment he stepped on the field as a redshirt freshman in 2012. In fact, that level of consistency from a quarterback, in terms of passing for touchdowns, is unmatched in major college football history as evidenced by Mariota becoming the first player ever to throw 30 or more touchdown passes as a freshman (32), sophomore (31) and junior (32).

MARIOTA'S TD-TO-INT RATIO

It is an understatement to say Marcus Mariota takes care of the ball while producing big numbers in Oregon's high powered offense. In his three seasons as the starting quarterback for the Ducks, Mariota has thrown just 12 interceptions while tossing 95 TDs for a touchdown-to-interception ratio of 7.92. Mariota's numbers dwarf those of many of the top QBs in college history.

TD PASS STREAK SETS PAC-12 RECORD

Marcus Mariota's 37 straight games with a touchdown pass has pushed Oregon's current streak to 64 straight games with points on a pass play, which sets a new Pac-12 Conference record. The Ducks broke the old record of 36 set by Stanford from 1978 to 1981. Oregon started its streak on September 4, 2010, when Darron Thomas threw two TD passes in a 72-0 win over New Mexico. Six Ducks' quarterbacks (and one running back) have contributed to the streak, throwing a combined 171 touchdown passes during the streak. Mariota leads the way with 95 TD strikes, while Thomas is second with 63. Bryan Bennett (9), Nate Costa (1), Jeff Lockie (1) and Jake Rodrigues (1) have also thrown for touchdowns during the streak and freshman running back Royce Freeman connected on a TD pass to Mariota in the Arizona game. Texas Tech owns the NCAA record with 69 consecutive games with a TD pass. The Red Raiders record ran from Sept. 23, 2006 to Oct. 22, 2011.

THREE-HEADED MONSTER IN BACKFIELD

While most teams are lucky to have one quality back to carry the load on offense, the Ducks have three tailbacks who have started games during their respective careers. Junior Byron Marshall, sophomore Thomas Tyner and true freshman Royce Freeman share the workload in the backfield while giving opposing defenses three different backs to prepare for in the game plan. Marshall, Tyner and Freeman have combined for 2,757 all-purpose yards in the Ducks' first 11 games. Freeman leads the team with 1,156 (1,050 rushing, 106 receiving), while Marshall is second with 998 (660 receiving, 318 rushing) and Tyner is fourth with 603 (387 rushing, 151 kick returns, 65 receiving). The three are averaging a combined 262.8 yards per game of all-purpose yardage and have combined for 25 touchdowns.

FREEMAN FIRST TRUE FROSH TO RUSH FOR 1,000 YARDS

Royce Freeman has compiled just the 21st 1,000-yard rushing season in Oregon history. The freshman ball carrier heads into the Oregon State game with 1,050 yards and joined teammate Byron Marshall in the exclusive club that includes just 17 Oregon greats. Freeman also became just the second freshman to rush for over 1,000 yards as well as the first true freshman. LaMichael James gained 1,546 rushing yards as a redshirt freshman in 2009.

TOUCHDOWN FREEMAN!

True freshman Royce Freeman returned to the end zone with two touchdown runs against Colorado on Nov. 22. The Ducks' running back now has 16 rushing touchdowns, the most by a true freshman in Oregon history and the 10th most by any player in the nation this season. Freeman's best game this season came when he rushed for four touchdowns in a win over Washington. The four rushing TDs were the most by a Duck since Kenjon Barner rushed for five against USC on Nov. 3, 2012. The Imperial, Calif., native has six double-digit touchdown games this season.

Freeman is closing in on the most rushing TDs by any player in Oregon history. His 16 rushing touchdowns are the fifth most in school history and he needs just six more to set the single-season school record. Freeman is tied for fifth in single-season total TDs and needs nine more to set a new school record.

FREEMAN GETS FOURTH 100-YARD GAME

After barely missing rushing for a 100 yards in back-to-back games with 98 vs. Stanford and 99 at Utah, Royce Freeman picked up his fourth 100-yard game of the season when he ran for 105 yards and two touchdowns against Colorado on Nov. 22. The freshman had recorded back-to-back-to-back 100-yard games earlier this season. Freeman picked up his first 100-yard effort with 121 yards and two touchdowns on 18 carries in a win at UCLA on Oct. 11. He followed that with a season-high 169 yards and a season-best four TDs on 29 carries in a win over Washington. Freeman made it three straight 100-yard games with 112 yards and two touchdowns on 22 carries in a win over Cal. Freeman's three straight 100-yard games were the first back-to-back-to-back 100-yard outings since Byron Marshall had a streak of five straight last season starting with Cal on Sept. 28 and ending with UCLA on Oct. 26.

BYRON MARSHALL IS MR. VERSATILE

Byron Marshall is producing nearly identical all-purpose yardage numbers as a wide receiver as he did as a running back last season. The once full-time running back is now playing the role of "slash" spending a bulk of his time as a wide receiver while also getting snaps in the backfield. Marshall is averaging 90.7 all-purpose yards, just 8.7 fewer than he did last season. Marshall has 660 yards receiving and 318 rushing yards for a total of 998. He finished his sophomore season averaging 99.4 yards (1,193 total yards) of total offense with 1,038 yards rushing and 155 yards receiving. Through 11 games, Marshall leads the Ducks in receptions (50) and receiving yards, while ranking second in all-purpose yards and fourth in rushing.

Marshall has a pair of 100-yard receiving games with a career-high 138 yards on a career-best eight catches and two TDs in the season opener vs. South Dakota. His second 100-yard receiving game came against California when he finished with 133 yards and a touchdown on four catches. He just missed his third career 200-yard all-purpose game against the Bears finishing with 190 total yards.

Marshall put together his second career 200-yard all-purpose game with 228 total yards against South Dakota, following his career-high 246 all-purpose yards in a win over Washington State last season.

FAST AND FURIOUS

Devon Allen has already proven that he is a true two-sport star at the collegiate level. The Ducks redshirt freshman is Oregon's second leading receiver with 613 receiving yards, thanks in part to a pair of 100-yard receiving games. The two-sport athlete had his first 100-yard receiving game against Michigan State when he caught three passes for 110 yards and two touchdowns in Oregon's 46-27 win over the Spartans on Sept. 6. Two games later he had an even better game, catching a season-high seven passes for a season-best 142 yards and two TDs at WSU. For the season, the Ducks' WR has caught 34 passes and is tied with a team-high six receiving TDs. The gridiron success comes after Allen won a NCAA championship as well as a U.S. national championship in the 110 hurdles during his true freshman season.

DOUBLE-100 RECEIVING

A pair of Oregon wide receivers have gone over the 100-yard receiving plateau in the same game twice this season. Byron Marshall and Dwayne Stanford were the latest tandem to crack 100 yards receiving in the same game with Marshall finishing with a team-high 133 yards and Stanford finishing with a career-high 103 yards in the Ducks win over Cal. Devon Allen and Keanon Lowe both set career highs against Washington State with Allen catching a season-high seven passes for 142 yards and two TDs, while Lowe matched a career-high with five receptions for 104 yards and a pair of touchdowns. In the school's all-time history, two Ducks have eclipsed the 100-yard receiving mark in the same game just 18 times. Six of those 100-yard receiving duos have come with Marcus Mariota at quarterback. Oregon has had a duo surpass the 100-yard receiving mark more than once in the same season just three times -- twice this season, three times last season and twice in 1998.

PICK YOUR POISON

Slowing down Oregon's offense isn't easy. The Ducks boast a number of weapons that Marcus Mariota has utilized to become arguably the best player in college football. UO has had 11 different receivers, including Mariota, catch at least one touchdown pass this season. Eleven different players catching a TD pass is tied for the second most in the country, with Oregon's 11 grabbing the most touchdowns (34).

Team	Players w/ TD	Catch	Team TD	Catches
Mississippi State	12		27
Oregon	11		34
Texas Tech	11		34

(13 teams tied with 10)

THINKING OF 85

Sophomore wide receiver Dwayne Stanford will wear number 85, instead of 88, for the remainder of the season to honor junior tight end Pharaoh Brown who suffered a season-ending injury at Utah on Nov. 8. Brown was in the midst of a breakout season for the Ducks. He was the team's fourth leading receiver with 25 catches for 420 yards with a team-best six touchdowns when he was injured.

DARGAN IS DOG GONE GOOD

Senior safety Erick Dargan is making the most out of finally being a starter. After three seasons as a reserve on defense, the Pittsburg, Calif. native has put together arguably the best season so far by a Duck defender. Dargan leads UO in both tackles (77) and interceptions (5). Dargan heads into the Oregon State game tied for 12th in the country in interceptions and he needs just one more to crack the school's career top 10. Dargan has a team-high four double-digit tackle games this season with a career-best 12 tackles against Stanford.

Dargan also excels for the Ducks on special teams and was a second-team All-Pac-12 pick as a special teamer last season.

RETURN MEN

The 2014 Oregon roster has 48 letterwinners, including 16 starters - 10 on offense and six on defense - from last season. By contrast, the 2013 squad had 56 returning lettermen and 16 starters.

FIRST TIMERS

Youth has been a big part of Oregon's success in 2014. Long snapper Devin Melendez saw his first action of the season in Oregon's win over Colorado to run the total of true freshman to see action in a game to 11 this season. Ten true freshman (Tanner Carew, Tyrell Crosby, Royce Freeman, Justin Hollins, Austin Maloata, Henry Mondeaux, Charles Nelson, Aidan Schneider, Arriom Springs, and Jimmie Swain) saw action in the Ducks' season-opening win over South Dakota Aug. 30 and have since played throughout the season. The 11 rookies have made a contribution, scoring 21 touchdowns, kicking five field goals and 26 extra points, and making 48 tackles during the season. The 11 true freshman who have seen action is one more than played during the 2007 season. Last season six saw the field, eight in 2012, seven in 2011 and five in 2010.

FULL NELSON

Freshman receiver Charles Nelson has been a weapon on special teams for Oregon this season, scoring on a pair of punt returns while wreaking havoc on cover teams. Nelson's 50-yard touchdown on a punt return against South Dakota was the first punt returned for a TD by a true freshman at Oregon since freshman eligibility was restored in the early 1970s. He added an electric 58-yard punt return for a touchdown against California. Nelson is tied for second in the country in punt returns for touchdowns. His 17.0 yards per return would be the fourth-best average in the country but he hasn't returned enough punts to qualify (NCAA minimum is 1.2 per game while Nelson has returned 0.91 per game). Nelson has been a star on the cover teams adding 14 tackles on special teams in the Ducks' first 11 games.

LIGHTNING STRIKES

Of Oregon's 59 drives resulting in touchdowns this season, 31 (52.5 percent) have lasted two minutes or less. Six other drives have lasted two minutes and 15 seconds or less. Oregon's most time consuming drive this season lasted 6:31 on the team's final drive against Michigan State Sept. 6. Last season, of Oregon's 74 drives resulting in touchdowns, 49 (66.2 percent) lasted two minutes or less.

COACHING CONTINUITY

An often overlooked facet of Oregon's run of success has been the continuity of its coaching staff. Second-year head coach Mark Helfrich is in his sixth season on staff, but he is supported by several assistants who have served the last three UO head coaches. Running backs coach Gary Campbell is in his 32nd year on the Oregon staff, which is the longest tenure of any Oregon assistant football coach in school history. In addition, offensive line coach and running game coordinator Steve Greatwood enters his 28th season at UO, while recently promoted defensive coordinator Don Pellum is in his 22nd campaign.

HOUSE OF LOUD

With a standing room only crowd of 55,891 at Autzen Stadium on Nov. 22 vs. Colorado, the Ducks ran the nation's third-longest sellout streak to 103 consecutive games (cap. 54,000), dating to 1999.

OREGON DRESS CODE

For the third year in a row, the Ducks are taking the field wearing the fully integrated Nike uniform system that debuted at the 2012 Rose Bowl. The uniform incorporates pinnacle performance innovation and design while providing enhanced thermoregulation and more durability with the inclusion of Nike Chain Maille Mesh - a lightweight ultra-breathable material - used in both the jersey and pant. The Ducks will also utilize Nike Mach Speed uniform elements from last season's Alamo Bowl.

EXPLOSION PLAYS

A staple of Oregon's blur offense in recent years has been "explosion plays" of 25 yards or more from scrimmage. The Ducks have 51 this season through 11 games, including five vs. Colorado on Nov. 22. Seventeen of those plays have resulted in touchdowns. Last season the Ducks racked up 67, with 21 resulting in touchdowns.

ESPN COLLEGE GAMEDAY EXTENDS RECORD STREAK IN EUGENE

ESPN College GameDay produced its live weekly college football preview show from the University of Oregon's Memorial Quad on Sept. 6, marking the ninth appearance in Eugene by the immensely popular show which features host Chris Fowler along with analysts Lee Corso, Kirk Herbstreit, Desmond Howard and David Pollack. Oregon, the only school to host GameDay five consecutive years, has now done it six straight. With a 46-27 win over then-No. 7 Michigan State, the Ducks now boast a 7-2 record when the show airs from Eugene, with their only defeats coming vs. No. 18 Stanford in overtime in 2012 and against No. 6 Cal, 31-24, in 2007. Last year a second-ranked Oregon squad took down No. 12 UCLA, 42-14. Other home wins in front of GameDay were the No. 9 Ducks over No. 18 Arizona State in 2011 (41-27), a 52-31 victory over No. 9 Stanford in 2010 (UO was No. 4), a 47-20 Halloween upset of fourth-ranked USC in '09 (UO was No. 10), a 35-23 win vs. No. 6 Arizona State in '07 (UO was No. 4) and a 29-10 upset of No. 6 UCLA in 2000 (UO was unranked).

NON-CONFERENCE SUCCESS

Since 2000, Oregon is 37-6 in regular season, out-of-conference contests, earning notable victories against the likes of Oklahoma, Wisconsin, Michigan (x2) and Michigan State. During that stretch, the Ducks are 3-1 against the SEC, 6-2 vs. the Big Ten, 1-1 vs. the Big 12, 5-0 against the Mountain West, 12-2 vs. the WAC, 2-0 against Conference USA and 7-0 vs. FCS teams.

Game 11 - Nov. 22

COLORADO 10
#3 OREGON 55

Eugene, Ore. (55,891)
Autzen Stadium
52 degrees, mostly cloudy

EUGENE, Ore. — Oregon celebrated senior day in style Saturday, beating Colorado 44-10 at Autzen Stadium in another record-setting day for junior quarterback Marcus Mariota.

How It Happened: The Ducks put together perhaps their most dominating performance of the season, rolling up 597 yards of offense and allowing just 226. Touchdowns on four of Oregon's first five drives put the game out of reach early, with Royce Freeman rushing for two first-half touchdowns and Mariota adding a rushing touchdown and a passing TD, to Charles Nelson. The Buffs were 1-of-2 on field-goal attempts in the first half, and Oregon closed the half with a Matt Wogan field goal to lead 30-3.

In the third quarter, new starting tight end Evan Baylis — a Colorado native — had his first career touchdown reception. That was the 41st touchdown play Mariota was involved in on the season, tying Matt Barkley's Pac-12 record, and Mariota broke it later in the quarter with another scoring pass to Nelson. With the Ducks up 44-10, Mariota took the field for their first snap of the fourth quarter, handed off and then was pulled from the game for backup Jeff Lockie. Mariota was noncommittal after the game about his future, but the junior conceded that, "If this was my last game at Autzen, it was truly special."

Who Stood Out: Mariota accounted for 396 yards of offense and four touchdowns, in the process becoming just the sixth player in major college history with 9,000 career passing yards and 2,000 rushing yards. Freeman extended his UO true freshman rushing record, surpassing 1,000 yards for the season with 105 on Saturday. Erick Dargan led the dominating defensive performance with seven tackles, while Joe Walker and Arik Armstead each posted a sack. Hamani Stevens filled in for Hroniss Grasu at center and kept the offense moving at a rapid tempo.

What It Means: Oregon (10-1, 7-1 Pac-12) maintained momentum after having previously clinched the Pac-12 North title. The Ducks won a 10th game for the seventh straight season, improving to 21-3 under coach Mark Helfrich. Colorado fell to 2-9 overall, 0-8 in conference.

Odds and Ends: With Stevens at center, Doug Brenner entered the starting lineup at left guard, though Jake Pisarick played a considerable amount of reps at that spot, too. ... Junior offensive tackle Andre Yruretagoyena rotated at right tackle with Tyrell Crosby, taking the field for the first time since September. ... Long snapper Devin Melendez became the 11th true freshman to play in 2014. ... Running back Thomas Tyner did not play. ... Oregon was a phenomenal 9-of-15 on third down. ... Neither team had a turnover.

Game 10 - Nov. 8

#5 OREGON 51
#20 UTAH 27

Salt Lake City, Utah (47,528)
Rice-Eccles Stadium
52 degrees, partly cloudy

SALT LAKE CITY — One of the craziest plays in recent UO football history, a 100-yard fumble return for a touchdown after a Utes receiver fumbled while crossing the goal line, sparked the fifth-ranked Ducks (No. 4 CFP) to a 51-27 victory over No. 17 Utah before 47,528 fans in Rice-Eccles Stadium on Saturday evening. The win clinched the Pac-12 North for Oregon, putting the Ducks into the Pac-12 title game.

How it Happened: Utah scored on its first possession, with athletic quarterback Kendal Thompson directing the offense, while Oregon's only offense early on was the running of Marcus Mariota. Thompson left the game with an apparent injury, and replacement Travis Wilson threw a long pass that was poised to put the Utes up two touchdowns — until Kaelin Clay fumbled at the end of a potential 79-yard touchdown reception, dropping the ball prematurely as he crossed the goal line. Erick Dargan picked it up, and Joe Walker eventually ended up with the ball before returning it 100 yards for the game-tying touchdown.

That 14-point swing on one play completely changed the game's momentum. Utah didn't score again until a field goal at the halftime gun, ending a run of 24 straight points for Oregon. The Ducks countered the Utes' high-pressure front seven by using quick passes to drive to touchdowns by Dwayne Stanford and Pharaoh Brown, and Aidan Schneider kicked a 39-yard field goal.

Early in the second half, the Utes converted a Mariota fumble into a field goal to get within 24-13. The Ducks matched it with Schneider's second of the night for a 27-13 advantage. Schneider answered a Utah touchdown with a 42-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter, and Oregon's lead was 30-20. Utah again responded to a UO field goal with a touchdown to make it 30-27, using prolific running back Devontae Booker well in the passing game. But the Ducks drove to Stanford's second scoring reception of the night for a 37-27 edge.

Who Stood Out: It was an historic night for Mariota, who became the first UO quarterback ever to pass for 9,000 yards in his career, completing 17-of-29 on the night for 239 yards and three touchdowns. Stanford had two touchdowns for the second time in the last three games. Walker made another big play in the fourth quarter with Oregon up 37-27, stopping Booker for no gain on a screen pass that forced Utah to settle for a field-goal attempt that his the upright.

What It Means: Oregon will play in the Pac-12 title game on Dec. 5 in Santa Clara, Calif. The opponent will be the winner of the Pac-12 South, at this point projected to be any one of four teams. Nationally, on a night when No. 3 Auburn lost to Texas A&M, the fourth-ranked Ducks held serve on the road to also remain in the thick of the race for a College Football Playoff berth.

Odds and Ends: Mariota's first TD pass, to Stanford on a fourth-down play in the second quarter, gave him one in all 36 games of his career, matching the third-longest streak in NCAA history. ... Chris Seisay and Troy Hill were Oregon's cornerbacks for the second half.

... Tyree Robinson made the start at safety, but Dargan entered on the Utes' first drive after being slow to get up following the opening kickoff. ... Tyrell Crosby made his fourth start of the season at offensive tackle, in place of Matt Pierson, who didn't make the trip.

Game 9 - Nov. 1

STANFORD 16
#5 OREGON 45

Eugene, Ore. (58,794)
Autzen Stadium
56 degrees, mostly cloudy

EUGENE, Ore. — Fifth-ranked Oregon won its fourth straight and rebounded from two losses to Stanford by beating the Cardinal 45-16 before 58,794 in Autzen Stadium on Saturday evening.

How It Happened: After failing to score until the fourth quarter in a loss at Stanford in 2013, the Ducks scored on their first four possessions Saturday — and the first three were touchdowns. Oregon by that point had become just the second team this season to score as many as 20 points on the Cardinal defense, which had been allowing 12.5 points per game, second-fewest in the country. The Cardinal's first touchdown got it within 24-13 at halftime, and Stanford received the second-half kickoff. But after driving his team past midfield, Kevin Hogan provided the game's first turnover, an interception by Erick Dargan at the UO 1-yard line. Marcus Mariota answered with an interception of his own, however, and Stanford drove to a field goal. The Ducks quickly responded with another touchdown, however, the second of the game for Thomas Tyner on a beautiful spin move, taking a 31-16 lead into the fourth quarter and ending Stanford's 31-game streak holding opponents under 30 points. Mariota added a rushing touchdown early in the fourth quarter to break the game open, 38-16, and later threw a TD pass to Darren Carrington.

Who Stood Out: On a night when Mariota wasn't particularly sharp, completing 19-of-30 passes for 258 yards, the Ducks pounded away in the running game. Oregon rushed 46 times for 267 yards, averaging 5.8 yards per carry after averaging 2.6 against Stanford a year earlier. Royce Freeman nearly had his fourth straight 100-yard effort, finishing with 98 yards, and Tyner added 63 yards with two touchdowns. Defensively, Dargan added a forced fumble to set up Mariota's rushing touchdown early in the fourth quarter. Dargan also led the Ducks with 12 tackles.

What It Means: Oregon (8-1, 5-1 Pac-12) took a two-game lead over Stanford (5-4, 3-3) in the race for the Pac-12 North title, with three games remaining for each. The Ducks also remained in the thick of the race for the College Football Playoff field, on a night when No. 3 Auburn beat No. 4 Mississippi in the SEC.

Odds and Ends: Tyner, Arik Armstead and Matt Wogan all returned to the lineup after not traveling to California the week before. Armstead had two tackles in the first half, and Wogan handled kickoffs. ... Keanon Lowe returned to the starting lineup after a two-game absence and had two catches for 31 yards. ... Aidan Schneider's 40-yard field goal in the first half was Oregon's longest in either of the past two seasons. ... The sellout was the 102nd in a row at Autzen Stadium.

Game 8 - Oct. 24

#6 OREGON 59
CALIFORNIA 41

Santa Clara, Calif. (55,575)
Levi's Stadium
64 degrees, clear

SANTA CLARA, Calif. — The No. 6 Oregon football team broke open the game after halftime to beat California, 59-41, on Friday night in the first college football game hosted by the new home of the NFL's San Francisco 49ers, Levi's Stadium.

How It Happened: The battle of two of the country's most explosive offenses began in fitting fashion as the teams traded touchdowns early, before the Ducks used 24 points in the second quarter to break out to a 38-28 halftime lead. The Golden Bears took advantage of two UO turnovers to stay within striking distance in the period, but Oregon scored twice to open the second half and widen the gap again.

Who Stood Out: Marcus Mariota became Oregon's all-time leading passer in the course of a night on which he completed 18-of-30 passes for 326 yards with five touchdowns. Mariota had 8,299 career passing yards entering the night, and passed Bill Musgrave to become the Ducks' career leader. He also threw a touchdown pass for the 34th straight game, every appearance of his career. Royce Freeman led the Ducks in rushing again with 112 yards and two touchdowns, breaking Thomas Tyner's year-old record for rushing yards by a UO true freshman in the process. Another true freshman, Charles Nelson, had an electric 58-yard punt return for a touchdown in the second quarter, making several defenders miss tackles along the way. Defensively, the Golden Bears threw away from UO all-American cornerback Ifo Ekpre-Olomu all night, and Troy Hill responded with four pass breakups. Christian French recorded a sack, giving him a team-high 4.5 this season.

What It Means: Oregon improved to 7-1 overall and 4-1 in the Pac-12, maintaining its lead in the Pac-12's North Division. The Ducks have won three straight since their lone loss of the season.

Odds and Ends: For the second straight year, Mariota's first interception of the year was tipped twice before being picked off. In the second quarter, one Cal defender tipped a pass that another tried to intercept yet couldn't, deflecting it to a third Golden Bear who hauled it in. ... The turnover ended a streak of 253 passes without an interception, the second-longest streak in Pac-12 history. Mariota is also first with a streak of 353. ... Earlier in the quarter, Cal scored after recovering a UO fumble, the first points off a turnover the Ducks allowed in 2014. ... Nelson's punt return was Oregon's longest of the year, as was Devon Allen's kickoff return of 45 in the first half, after UO coach Mark Helfrich said the return game was an area for improvement this week.

Game 7 - Oct. 18

WASHINGTON 20
#9 OREGON 45

Eugene, Ore. (57,858)
Autzen Stadium
77 degrees, mostly sunny

EUGENE, Ore. — Oregon extended its winning streak over long-time rival Washington to 11 games, the longest by either team in the history of the series, as the No. 9 Ducks beat the Huskies 45-20 in Autzen Stadium on Saturday.

How It Happened: Freshman Royce Freeman ran for three first-half touchdowns as the Ducks built a 28-6 halftime lead. Washington's vaunted defensive front seven couldn't contain the Oregon rushing attack as the Ducks ran for 218 yards, and the UO offensive line allowed just three sacks. The UO defense limited Washington to 317 yards of offense, including 27 rushing yards in the first half. The Huskies got their two field goals in the first quarter, staying within 7-6 before the Ducks blew it open in the second.

Who Stood Out: Freeman surpassed 100 rushing yards for the second week in a row, after the Ducks went the first five games of the season without a 100-yard rusher. The freshman finished with 29 carries for 169 yards and four touchdowns. Marcus Mariota completed 24-of-33 passes for 336 yards and two touchdowns. Freshman Darren Carrington had season-highs of five receptions and 79 yards. Defensively, Erick Dargan came up with his fourth interception of the year, tied for fourth in the FBS, and Christian French has a career-high two sacks and forced a key second-half fumble.

What It Means: Oregon improved to 6-1 overall and 3-1 in the Pac-12, retaining a share of first place in the North Division. Washington fell to 5-2 overall and 1-2 in conference play.

Odds and Ends: Mariota threw a touchdown pass for the 33rd straight game, every appearance of his career. ... Oregon improved to 1-2 against former UO assistant Chris Petersen, the UW head coach who led Boise State to two wins over the Ducks. ... Matt Wogan missed a 33-yard field-goal attempt in the second half. ... Defensive end Arik Armstead started the game after not playing at UCLA.

Game 6 - Oct. 11

#12 OREGON 42
#18 UCLA 30

Pasadena, Calif. (80,139)
The Rose Bowl
78 degrees, hazy

PASADENA, Calif. — The No. 12 Ducks rebounded from their loss to Arizona and avoided losing back-to-back games for the first time since 2007 by jumping out to an early lead and going on to a 42-30 victory over UCLA in the Rose Bowl on Saturday.

How It Happened: The Ducks got on the board first with a Marcus Mariota touchdown run and a two-point conversion in the first quarter. A tipped pass by Tony Washington helped keep the Bruins to a field goal on their first score, and Oregon made it 21-3 on touchdowns by Thomas Tyner and Pharaoh Brown in the second quarter. UCLA quarterback Brett Hundley gave the Ducks trouble all day as a runner, including on a TD run just before halftime. But Mariota answered with his second scoring run of the game early in the third quarter for a 28-10 advantage, and Royce Freeman scored just 1:07 later after a turnover.

Who Stood Out: Mariota surpassed 100 touchdowns for his career and also threw for a touchdown in his 32nd straight game, every appearance of his career so far. The offensive line got a major boost from the return of left tackle Jake Fisher, who returned from a two-game absence and helped Oregon rush for 255 yards. Ifo Ekpre-Olomu had an interception to set up Freeman's touchdown in the third quarter, coming up big after leaving briefly in the first half to have his ankle re-taped.

What It Means: This game was billed essentially as a loser-out game for the College Football Playoff, after both teams lost a week earlier. Oregon improved to 5-1 overall and 2-1 in the Pac-12, and could crawl back into the top 10 of the polls based on results from around the country.

Odds and ends: With Fisher back on the offensive line, Matt Pierson remained the starter at right tackle and Tyrell Crosby backed up both tackle spots. ... Crosby had to leave at one point when his helmet came off, converted defensive lineman Stetzon Bair entered at left tackle and on the next play Freeman ran for his TD in the third quarter. ... Defensive end Arik Armstead was not in pads after missing the second half of the Arizona game. ... Keanon Lowe started at receiver but left in the first quarter and did not return. ... Freeman became the first UO player to rush for 100 yards since Mariota in the Alamo Bowl, and the first running back since Tyner in the Civil War.

EUGENE, Ore. — Oregon suffered its first home defeat at Autzen Stadium since 2012 as Arizona scored four touchdowns in the second half and forced a UO fumble in the final minutes to secure a 31-24 victory.

How it Happened: Arizona's Nick Wilson scored the first of his three third-quarter touchdowns on the Wildcats' opening drive after halftime, giving UA a 10-7 lead. The Ducks responded with a six-yard touchdown pass from Marcus Mariota to Devon Allen to reclaim the lead, but the Wildcats put together back-to-back scoring drives of 93 and 80 yards for a 24-14 edge heading into the final quarter. A Matt Wogan field goal and Keanon Lowe touchdown catch tied the game for Oregon with 8:21 to play before Arizona chewed up more than five minutes on a 15-play, 71-yard drive that ended in a 1-yard plunge by Teris Jones-Grigsby. Prior to what proved to be the eventual game-winning touchdown, Tony Washington sacked UA quarterback Anu Solomon for a 9-yard loss on third-and-goal from the 7-yard line, but the Ducks were flagged for unsportsmanlike conduct giving the Wildcats a fresh set of downs. Oregon picked up three quick first downs on its final drive before Mariota was sacked and stripped of the ball at the Ducks' 35-yard line with 2:11 to play.

Who Stood Out: Mariota was able to shake off a slow start throwing the ball to finish 20-of-32 passing for 276 yards and two touchdowns. He also caught the second touchdown of his career, bulling his way into the end zone on a 26-yard pass from Royce Freeman. The true freshman tailback also led the Ducks in rushing, toting the ball 19 times for 85 yards. Devon Allen found the end zone for the fourth straight game, giving him six touchdowns over that stretch. Dwayne Stanford had four receptions for a career-high 74 yards. Defensively, Reggie Daniels made six solo tackles and notched his first career interception on an acrobatic, diving play in the first quarter. Washington finished with a pair of tackles for loss and a forced fumble.

What it Means: The Ducks will surely drop from their No. 2 ranking as they leave the ranks of the unbeaten. Every team in the Pac-12 North Division now has at least one loss as the Ducks' record moves to 4-1 overall and 1-1 in conference play.

Odds and ends: The Ducks were flagged for 10 penalties for the second straight game - five directly resulting in Arizona first downs. ... Oregon failed to score a rushing touchdown for the second straight game. ... The game marked the 100th consecutive sellout at Autzen Stadium and only the 16th home defeat for the Ducks during that stretch, dating to 1999.

Game 4 - Sept. 20

#2 OREGON 38
WASHINGTON STATE 31

PULLMAN, Wash. (32,952)
 Martin Stadium
 78 degrees, clear

PULLMAN, Wash. — Oregon survived behind a patchwork offensive line thanks to another big night from Marcus Mariota, outscoring Washington State in the second half to win 38-31 in Martin Stadium on Saturday night.

How it Happened: Mariota was sacked five times in the first half as the Cougars fought to a 21-21 halftime tie. The Ducks shored things up just enough in the second half, getting a go-ahead touchdown pass to Pharaoh Brown late in the third quarter from Mariota, his fourth of five in the game. A pass breakup by Dior Mathis and sack on fourth down by Tony Washington denied Washington State on its final attempt to tie the game in the fourth quarter.

Who Stood Out: Mariota finished 21-of-25 passing for 329 yards and the five touchdowns, shrugging off the pressure put on Oregon's inexperienced offensive line. Left tackle Tyrell Crosby and right tackle Matt Pierson each made his first career start at those respective positions, and the Ducks struggled with protection and penalties all night. The tide shifted when DeForest Buckner forced a fumble and Arik Armstead recovered it in the third quarter, setting the stage for Brown's go-ahead touchdown. Keanon Lowe had a career-high 104 receiving yards and two touchdowns - the first coming on a 57-yard reception to tie the game at 14-14 and the second proving to be the game-winning score with 5:33 to play in the final quarter.

What it Means: The second-ranked Ducks survived their first conference road trip with a victory, and now have a bye week in which to try and get healthier and shore up the offensive line. Oregon improved to 4-0 and is now 1-0 in Pac-12 play.

Odds and ends: Devon Allen scored two touchdowns, giving him five for the season, tied for the UO lead this season with Royce Freeman. ... Freeman started the game, becoming Oregon's second true freshman starter at running back in as many seasons, joining Thomas Tyner, who started the final regular season game in 2013. Prior to Tyner, the last UO true frosh to start at running back was Derek Loville in 1986. ... Mariota had never been sacked more than three times in a single game. ... Mariota has now suffered 12 sacks in his career at the hands of the Cougars - twice as many as any other opponent. ... Mariota's passing efficiency rating of 260.5 was the highest of his career. ... The game marked the second time Oregon's QB had more touchdown passes than incompletions.

Game 3 - Sept. 13

WYOMING 14
#2 OREGON 48

Eugene, Ore. (56,533)
Autzen Stadium
66 degrees, mostly sunny

EUGENE, Ore. — The second-ranked Oregon Ducks shook off a sluggish start to overcome an early deficit and wrap up nonconference play unbeaten after a 48-14 victory over Wyoming in Autzen Stadium on Saturday.

How it Happened: A Pac-12 Networks telecast necessitated an 11 a.m. PT kickoff time, and for a spell it seemed like Oregon had decided to sleep in. The Cowboys converted 5-of-6 third-down attempts on their first two possessions, sandwiched around the Ducks failing to score from their own 2-yard line. That helped Wyoming take an early 7-0 lead, but ordered soon was restored and the Ducks scored the next 41 points unanswered.

Who Stood Out: Marcus Mariota threw for two touchdowns and ran for two others, including a leaping, somersaulting effort in the second quarter to put the Ducks ahead 20-7. He was on the move several times throughout the game, as the offensive line adjusted to the early loss of left tackle Jake Fisher due to injury. That put walk-on junior Matt Pierson in at left tackle, on a day when true freshman Tyrell Crosby made his first career start at right tackle. Defensively, safety Erick Dargan had two more interceptions, the first of which set up Mariota's acrobatic touchdown.

What it Means: The Ducks (3-0) remained unbeaten through non-conference play, knocking off South Dakota, Michigan State and Wyoming. The red flag entering the Pac-12 gantlet will be depth at offensive tackle, as the Ducks were without Fisher, Tyler Johnstone, Andre Yruretagoyena and Elijah George due to leg injuries as of Saturday.

Odds and ends: Mariota threw a touchdown pass for the 29th straight game, every appearance of his career. ... Redshirt freshman Chris Seisay made his first career start. Senior Troy Hill suited up but did not appear, after playing through a knee issue last week against the Spartans. ... The crowd of 56,533 gave Oregon its 99th consecutive sellout.

Game 2 - Sept. 6

#7 MICHIGAN STATE 27
#3 OREGON 46

Eugene, Ore. (59,456)
Autzen Stadium
91 degrees, overcast

EUGENE, Ore. — The first nonconference matchup of top-10 teams in Autzen Stadium history lived up to every bit of the hype, as No. 3 Oregon jumped out to a lead, withstood a furious comeback by No. 7 Michigan State and recovered to win 46-27.

How it Happened: The Spartans all but shut down Oregon's vaunted run game, survived a couple big plays by the Ducks early on and then got the momentum going squarely in their favor. The Ducks used an Erick Dargan interception to set up the game's first touchdown, and a 70-yard touchdown pass to Devon Allen made it 18-7. But the Spartans then scored the game's next 20 points to build a 27-18 lead. The Ducks then flipped the switch on both sides of the ball, shutting down MSU's offense and getting third-quarter touchdown passes from Marcus Mariota to Allen again and then Keanon Lowe for a 32-27 lead. A Royce Freeman touchdown run made it 39-27 early in the fourth quarter. The big freshman capped the Oregon effort with a 14-yard score on a fourth-and-two carry, completing a crushing 11-play, 96-yard drive that ticked off 6:31 of the final 7:56.

Who Stood Out: Mariota finished the day 17-of-28 for 318 yards and three touchdowns through the air. He also had two huge third-down conversions in the third quarter, one on each UO scoring drive. He flipped a shovel pass on the run to Freeman to convert a third-and-11, and ran it himself on third-and-nine. Defensively, linebacker Joe Walker entered the starting lineup and finished the game with nine tackles. Defensive lineman DeForest Buckner followed up his six-tackle performance against South Dakota in the opener with seven on Saturday. MSU quarterback Connor Cook was outstanding as well, passing for 343 yards and two scores.

What it Means: The Ducks now figure to be a favorite to make the inaugural College Football Playoff, though the entire Pac-12 schedule looms. One of the Ducks' chief rivals for the Pac-12 North title, Stanford, dropped its conference opener to USC on Saturday.

Odds and ends: Mariota passed Bill Musgrave to become Oregon's career leader in total offense in the first quarter, and threw his school-record 67th career touchdown pass in the second quarter. ... Cameron Hunt returned to the starting lineup at right guard. ... True freshman Tyrell Crosby played nearly the entire second half at right tackle after Andre Yruretagoyena was carted off.

Game 1 - Aug. 30

SOUTH DAKOTA 13
#3 OREGON 62

Eugene, Ore. (57,388)
Autzen Stadium
67 degrees, partly sunny

EUGENE, Ore. — Oregon's 2014 regular season got off to a rousing start with a 62-13 win over visiting South Dakota before 57,388 fans in Autzen

Stadium on Saturday night.

How it Happened: The Ducks had little trouble scoring, piling up 466 first-half yards on the way to a 41-13 halftime lead. UO coach Mark Helfrich's ire was drawn when a careless play took points off the board, along with five early penalties and some porous run defense. But Oregon was able to work nearly every available player onto the field, valuable experience for a team that brought 40 newcomers into preseason camp.

Who Stood Out: Quarterback Marcus Mariota took advantage of an array of new offensive weapons, including the Pac-12's top returning rusher Byron Marshall in a new all-purpose role and freshman running back Royce Freeman. Mariota played the first half and finished 14-of-20 passing for 267 yards and three touchdowns, adding six rushes for 43 yards and a score. Marshall caught six of those passes for 117 yards and two touchdowns in the first half, and rushed twice for 58 yards, though he also cost the Ducks six points by dropping the ball just short of the goal line at the end of a long run. Freeman had touchdowns on two of his first three carries, backing up the considerable hype he generated in preseason camp.

What it Means: The Ducks certainly looked like a top-five team in the nation when they had the ball, with Thomas Tyner getting the bulk of the carries and Mariota spreading it around to the likes of Marshall and Darren Carrington. South Dakota's 20 first-half rushes for 120 yards were troubling, especially with mighty Michigan State coming to town next, but some of that was against backup Duck defenders, making it tough to completely assess how things will look under new coordinator Don Pellum.

Odds and Ends: Ten true freshmen saw the field, a number that Ducks haven't exceeded in any of the last four full seasons. The ten were long snapper Tanner Carew, kicker Aidan Schneider, offensive lineman Tyrell Crosby, receiver Charles Nelson, defensive linemen Austin Maloata and Henry Mondeaux, linebackers Justin Hollins and Jimmie Swain, cornerback Arrion Springs and Freeman. Nelson returned a third-quarter punt for a touchdown. ... At positions where the Ducks hadn't previously announced starters, the first reps went to Dwayne Stanford at receiver, Pharaoh Brown at tight end, Jake Pisarcik at right guard, Reggie Daniels at safety and Thomas Tyner at running back ... Mariota set UO career records for total touchdowns (82) and passing touchdowns (66), tying Darren Thomas in the latter category.
